Indemnity (All Participants must sign this Waiver):

In consideration for me being permitted to participate as an entrant or competitor in this race, I, my heirs, executors and administrators hereby release, waive and keep indemnified Running Events Limited, Food For The Poor Jamaica and all clubs, associations, companies, sponsors, participants, competitors, entrants, and all of their respective agents and servants from and against all actions, claims, costs, expenses, demands in respect of death, injury, loss or damage to my person or property howsoever caused by arising out of my permission to attend at, or in any way participate during or subsequent to the said Food For The Poor 5K Run/Walk whether as spectator, participant, or competitor, entrant or otherwise, notwithstanding that the parties above-mentioned their servants and/or agents may have contributed to the aforesaid injury, death or loss. Further, the participant grants full permission to any or all of the releases to use any photographs, video tapes, motion pictures, recordings, and any other record of this event for any legitimate purpose. Food For The Poor Jamaica retains the property in all photographs, video and audio material arising from the event and reserves the right to use all such images and sound as it sees fit for legitimate purposes without the participant's consent. If the participant is younger than 18 years old, the parent or guardian should accept the Indemnity.

If you are under the age of 18, you must have a parent or guardian's signature.

Since its establishment in 1983, Food For The Poor has been improving the health, economic, social and spiritual conditions of the poor in Jamaica. They have supported programmes in housing, food, medical, water, sanitation, education, agriculture, outreach and micro-enterprise. In continuing their fundraising efforts, Food For The Poor will host its annual 5K Run/Walk on Saturday, May 13, 2017 to raise funds to build homes for the less fortunate, and to increase awareness for their various areas of ministry.
